

Evangelism Class #19 - Handling Objections part 3

Objections to the Bible continued:

47. Doesn't the Bible promote slavery?
48. Didn't a bunch of men in church councils decide which books to put in the Bible?
49. There were other religious writings at the time, so how did they determine which ones were inspired and which weren't?
50. If the Bible is God's inspired Word, why are there so many different interpretations of it?
51. Maybe a lot of the Bible is accurate historically, but I can't get past the parts about miracles. Surely those are made up!
52. The Bible claims that Jesus rose from the dead. That's impossible!
53. Maybe the body was stolen!
54. Maybe they were hallucinating!
55. Maybe the apostles made it up to promote Jesus as their leader.
56. I don't need the Bible because God speaks to me directly through the Holy Spirit and visions.
57. The Bible isn't meant to be a rule book. It's just a guideline for a loving relationship.

Objections to the church:

58. I'm done being a part of a church because there are too many hypocrites.
59. It doesn't matter what church you belong to as long as the church believes in God and Jesus.
60. No church is perfectly following God's commands, but God will forgive us.
61. The church I go to is really great!
62. You church of Christ's think you're the only ones going to Heaven.
63. Command, Example, and Necessary Inference is just man-made "church of Christ" language.
64. The church of Christ is its own denomination started by Thomas and Alexander Campbell.
65. The church is just a money making institution.
